SATURDAY

DOORS OPEN 8:00PM
SHOWTIME 9:30PM

When the sun goes down, and the moon comes up, it's time for fun in Nassau. The Sun, The Sand and The Show is the newest and most vibrant cultural show to hit our shores. This is one of the only folkloric Bahamian shows on New Providence. One of the linchpin is the Calypso Singer, a talented musician and calypso artist who has functioned as the semiofficial ambassador of Bahamian goodwill, conducting concert tours around the world. There is also an electrifying fire dancing act by the vigerating Fire Dancer. What is a native show without the vibrant and gravity

challenging Limbo King and an ilusionist act
with glass eating by the one and only Obeah Dancer
along with our sexy
stage dancers.

The shows
are a little short (only 90 min.), but
end with a sequence
that emulates the Junkanoo festival.
